

37^{èmes} JOURNÉES DE MICROÉCONOMIE APPLIQUÉE

4-5 JUIN 2020
ANNECY

CALL FOR PAPERS

IREGE and Université Savoie Mont Blanc are pleased to announce that the 37th Applied Microeconomics Days will be held at Annecy, France, on 4 and 5 June 2020.

The purpose of this two-day conference is to bring together academics and researchers to present and discuss their ongoing research, and to stimulate interaction and cooperation between them. Topics with an interest in the broad area of applied microeconomics are covered: consumer and demand analysis, producer and cost analysis, industrial economics, organizational economics, innovation economics, labor, education, health, family economics, public economics, spatial economics, transportations, finance, risk and insurance, development economics, welfare economics, agricultural economics, environmental economics and natural resources, law and economics, behavioral and experimental economics, applied micro econometrics, etc.

The keynote lecture will be given by Rafael Laive, professor of economics at University of Lausanne.

The JMA's job market will give the opportunity to PhD candidates and post-doctoral researchers to signal themselves in the program as candidates for the next recruitment campaigns.

The Revue Economique will devote a special issue for this conference in september 2021.
